

ALLA Graduate Student Paper Award*

The Association for Latina and Latino Anthropologists (ALLA) invites submissions for the ALLA Graduate Student Paper Award. This award is given for the best original paper that addresses at least one of the following: 1) issues related to US Latinas/os and their communities from an anthropological perspective; 2) research conducted by Latina/o anthropologists, however defined.

The award is open to individuals who are graduate students and ALLA members at the time of submission (including ABDs). To participate in the competition, please send a pdf version of your paper and a cover letter with the paper title, the author's name and affiliation to allagradpaper@gmail.com. Papers should be no more than 5000 words (20 double-spaced pages) in length.

Paper submissions will be read by a committee of ALLA members. The winner will receive a cash award of $350 and the honorable mention will receive a cash award of $150. Both will be announced at the ALLA business meeting at the annual conference of the American Anthropological Association, as well as in Anthropology News, on the ALLA website and social media.

Submissions for the graduate student paper award must be received by August 1, 2016

Please send a PDF of your paper along with a cover letter with contact information for the author to allagradpaper@gmail.com

Entrants must be current members of ALLA
